Abstract

The paper develops constrained Bayes and empirical Bayes estimators under balanced loss functions. In the normal-normal example, estimators of the mean squared errors of the EB and constrained EB estimators are provided which are correct asymptotically up to $O(m^{-1})$, $m$ denoting the number of strata.